

BOILED PINS AND NEEDLES TO REVEAL THIEF, SAYS SEER

SHIRTS WILL STAB GUILTY, POLICEWOMAN IS TOLD

Springfield, May 16.—Nine brand new pins and nine needles directed to the proper treatment are to be the factors in the recovery of a $700 fur coat belonging to State Highway Inspector Miles E. Lathrop.

It is according to the advice of Mrs. Lathrop's wife, Policewoman Mrs. P. Lathrop, by Mrs. Anna K. Houghton, of No. 46, Summer street, who is chaplain of the First Spiritual church, the coat was stolen from her and then dug a hole in the ground and buried them.

In due time the spirits of the pins and needles would prick the guilty person, who stole the coat until he would confess and confess.

No testimony was introduced, however, as Judge Wallace R. Healy ruled that it is not a crime to tell fortunes, unless cards or other implements are used and the defendant was charged.

scheme for the recovery of the Lathrop coat. She was also to see the coat to a certain place and give a telephone number to Mrs. Lathrop, saying she would find the coat there.

The telephone number was later investigated and found to be a tailor shop, but it did not yield the coat. Fully 100 members of the spiritual church jammed the courtroom to hear the trials and loud cheering and applause greeted the dismissal of the case. Judge Healy promptly adjourned the demonstration.

WIFE OF DUKE OF WESTMINSTER ASKS LIBERTY

Duchess Said to Have Hurdled Spanish Dancer's Jewels Off Yacht

London, May 16 (U.P.)—Velvet hints that the Duke and Duchess of Westminster have separated appear in the London newspapers today. The hint follows the announcement that the duke has cancelled the permission given by his wife for the use of Grosvenor House for the Tanna Hospital ball, scheduled for May 25.

The duke's action has gravely embarrassed the dance committee, inasmuch as the King and Queen of Italy, the Prince of Wales and the Duke and Duchess of York intended to be present.

Friends here state that the Duchess has already served divorce papers on the Duke.

The Duke's first wife was Constance Cornwallis West, who obtained a divorce. The Duchess is a daughter of the late Sir William Norton, shipowner. Her first husband was George Bowley, from whom she obtained a divorce in 1921, marrying the Duke the same year.

The Duke and Duchess of Westminster quarreled violently on the Duke's yacht the past winter.

Among the guests was a Spanish dancer, to whose pretence the Duchess objected. She became so incensed that she is said to have thrown her jewels overboard.

AUTO ABANDONED AFTER HITTING MAN

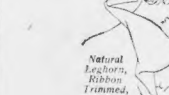

Thomas Carter, fifty-six years old, and single of No. 11 Dillon street, Brockton, was knocked down by an automobile at Washington and Lenox streets. The driver of the car rushed away without making his identity known and abandoned the machine at Massachusetts avenue and Washington street.

Carter was taken to the city hospital suffering from injuries to the head and face and a broken right leg. The police say witnesses told them that two young men were in the machine that injured Carter.

AMERICAN FORTUNE IN FOUNDLING SUIT

Paris, May 16.—The estate of an American woman, Mrs. Joseph Walker, is involved in an unusual trial here hinging on the paternity of a child adopted by Mrs. Walker from a foundling home. Mrs. Walker died in 1920, leaving to the child, René Dami, citizen of France, Antoine Schin, an Italian, and Marie Pore, a French stenographer, claimed the child as theirs. The prefect of Nancy, as legal guardian for the child, brought suit claiming that the child belonged to the couple.

Cabots to Be Among Early Arrivals on the North Shore, Says Betty Alden

By BETTY ALDEN

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Cabot are coming on from Santa Monica to open their place at Manchester-by-the-Sea this week end.

During the past few years, the Boston colony at the California Wintering place has grown fairly large. Among those who have been listed there are Mr. and Mrs. William Pratt Lyman, the J. Graham Minors, Mrs. Hamilton Perkins, Miss Rosemond Odum, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Dabney and Mrs. Pike Hammond.

The Manchester villa of Mr. and Mrs. Cabot—also well known as Mrs. E. J. Henshaw—is located on Smith's Point, commanding a splendid view of the ocean.

OTHER arrivals in Manchester include Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Merrill, who are already accounted for the season at "Rockhurst," also on Smith's Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, who are expected to arrive in the many improvements of the place just now, generally make a long season of it on the shore, for very long they will be joined at "Rockhurst" by their son, Jack L. Merrill, who has been spending the winter in Cuba.

Apocryphal of the Merrills, their cottage known as "Lodgehurst," also on Smith's Point, has been taken for the coming season by Mr. and Mrs. William Davies Sohier, Jr. (Edwin Denner). The Sohier, who were members of the Manchester colony last summer, will probably arrive on the shore the latter part of the month.

A LUTHERAN society led by Miss Lucy Foster (Frances Hunt) who seems to have quite a penchant for black. The other day when I saw her down town, she wore a somber gown of black crepe, with a tailored hat to match.

The Fosters are of the young married contingent, having their home and pentagon on Beacon hill. This group will shortly be added to when Mr. and Mrs. Thomas West, who were formerly in the Manchester colony, will arrive on the shore.

Bayard Tuckerman and Major George S. Patten will play on the Myopia Hunt Club's polo team during the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mapes are to spend the Summer at Beverly Farms, where they have taken the former Bostonian estate.

MISS BARBARA STONE

Miss Barbara Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Helen L. Stone of Brookline, will be a bridesmaid at Miss Evelyn Walker's wedding to John MacDuffie, 2nd, set for May 29 in the First Parish Church of Brookline.

Society Notes

Henry Cooke (Cushing) Sed, has been christened Harry Cooke, 4th. Mr. Cushing is a former Boston man. His young wife, formerly Miss Catherine Vanderbilt, is the daughter of Reginald C. Vanderbilt and Mrs. Sydney J. Couford, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Moreau are among the recent arrivals from Boston at the Hotel Ambassador in New York.

SAYS U. S. AIRSHIP CAN REACH POLE FIRST

Seattle, May 16.—House the United States controls the world's supply of helium, the airship undoubtedly can reach the North Pole before the craft of any other nation, in the opinion of Captain Robert A. Bartlett, Arctic explorer and a passenger on the United States Coast Guard cutter Bear. The Bear left yesterday for her thirtieth annual cruise in the Arctic.

Captain Bartlett said that he expected to hear any day that the British would attempt to reach the pole in the R-34.

SUITOR KILLS TOUPIN SHOWS FIANCEE AND HIMSELF WORLD WHOM HE WILL WED

Bangor Tragedy Enacted in Street as Auto Ride Climax

Bangor, Me., May 16.—Hundreds of young people leaving a dance on Columbia street saw Ellena St. Louis of Old Town shoot and kill her fiancée, Miss Paul Hendrick of Milford, and then turn the weapon on himself and commit suicide.

The tragedy occurred on Cross street, a few feet from police headquarters, where St. Louis parked his car previous to the shooting.

The couple, the police learned, were to be married next month. No motive for the shooting could be learned, although the police believe an argument between the young man and girl preceded it.

R. I. Lieut.-Gov. Files Marriage Intentions With Mrs. Sorel at New Bedford

New Bedford, May 16.—Lieutenant Governor Felix A. Tamm of Rhode Island showed the world where his affections lie when he appeared at the civil clerk's office here today and filed marriage intentions.

The Rhode Island executive, now in the city on a brief visit, was accompanied by his fiancée, Miss Sorel, who is a resident of New Bedford.

Until several weeks ago Miss Sorel believed that it would be she who would accompany Felix A. Tamm when he applied for a marriage license. Miss Sorel believed this so firmly that when she learned of the engagement of her former suitor to Mrs. Sorel she instituted a search of previous proceedings.

Before the papers in the case were served on the Lieutenant Governor, Mrs. Sorel suddenly withdrew the suit.

Even after the suit was ordered withdrawn the papers were served on the Lieutenant Governor. The Governor, however, of the State at once charged a friend on the part of the Republican organization in Rhode Island.

The Lieutenant Governor and his friends have today made no intention as to when the wedding would take place. In view of the fact that the Governor's plan to continue the State filibuster indefinitely in the Rhode Island it will be impossible for the Lieutenant Governor to take a honeymoon as he has done from the Senate chamber while at once and the fight.

SOMERVILLE AUTO DRIVER FINED $100

East Brookfield, May 16.—William L. McIntosh of Somerville pleaded guilty in District court to driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, and Judge Arthur W. Butterworth imposed a fine of $100. McIntosh paid.

SUSPENDED CHIEF HAS WOOD IN COURT

MAINE, May 16.—Governor General Wood is defendant in a misdemeanor action filed in the Supreme Court today by John A. Wood, chief of police of the city, who seeks an order by Wood suspending him. The case was set for hearing July 2. Wood's suspension arose out of a fracas at an 11th floor carnival two weeks ago in which two British sailors named Brown and Kay were arrested. The British Consul there reported the incident to Governor Woods, asserting the two were hanged with unnecessary violence by A. Wood.

COMMUNIST LEADER HELD FOR TREASON

Berlin, May 16.—The Communist leader, Rotenhardt, who is wanted by the Prussian state's attorney on a charge of treason, and whom the Berlin police declared they were seeking when they raided the Russian Soviet trade mission here recently, was arrested today in the city of the Russian trade delegation. It was reported by a news agency.

CONVICT PRISON SLAYER OF MURDER

Pittsburgh, May 16.—Paul Orla Kowak, an inmate of the Western Penitentiary, was convicted of first degree murder today for the killing of two guards during a riot in the prison on February 11 last. Orla Kowak took part in the dynamiting of the prison and the killing of Deputy Warden John Feyer and Sergeant John Cox. Kowak, "Hutcheson" Kattagala, tried last week on a similar indictment, was convicted of second degree murder.

DUESSELDORF GIVES $230 TO FRENCH MESS

Duesseldorf, May 16.—The municipal council of Duesseldorf recently gave $230 to the French mess in the city, with the aim of one thousand francs (1230) for the new fund of the "pauvre" who aided in the installation of the German sample fair in Duesseldorf. General Duesse gave the municipality to devote the sum to the city's charities in the name of the French soldiers because the army regulations forbid the acceptance of such gifts.

TAMMANY AGAIN IN SEARCH OF A LEADER

New York, May 16 (U.N.S.)—Tammany leaders will begin all over again today their work of selecting a successor to their late chief, Charles F. Murphy, following the news word that his son-in-law, Sarogata James A. Foley, will not accept leadership of the organization. Foley's designation, made after a prostration, characterized by his physician as a "complete nervous collapse." In his letter to the executive committee declining the post, the son-in-law said he had been advised by his physician that his health would be ruined, under the strain of leadership, within thirty days.

$300,000 THEFT OF SECURITIES STILL MYSTERY

Crocker "Ad" Reveals Papers Stolen on October 1, 1922. Have Not Been Recovered

An advertisement by George T. and G. Grover Crocker of No. 18 Congress street, the former at one time city treasurer, has called attention to the fact that the $300,000 worth of securities stolen from their offices on the night of October 1, 1922, have never been recovered.

Among the list, which consists in the main of registered stock certificates of no value except to the rightful owners, was $1,500 in bonds of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad, "payable to bearer."

BUILDING LOOTED. Before duplicates can be issued of some of the stolen stock certificates the law required the publication of their numbers and description.

According to detectives who claim to have traced the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad bonds to John W. Worthington, the alleged "Wolf of La Salle Street," Chicago, now under sentence to the Federal prison at Leavenworth, thieves have looted New England office buildings in the past four years of securities valued at $3,000,000 or more.

SEVERAL VICTIMS. The plan usually followed by the burglars has been to hire offices in a desired building, conceal confederates in the rooms on Saturday afternoon and burglarize the offices over the weekend.

Among others who have been robbed are the United Fruit Company, the American Vacuum Service Company, and the Crocker, in Boston, and the Providence office of the B. & R. Knight Company.

LURE ACTRESS AWAY, TAKE $20,000 GEMS

Fake Gown Phone Call Followed by Robbery at the Home of Laura Sondersen

New York, May 14.—Lured from her apartment at No. 171 West Seventy-second street by a fake telephone message informing her that her husband was seriously ill, Laura Sondersen, principal in a Broadway revue, reported to the police that her apartment had been ransacked and jewelry valued at $20,000 taken.

The robbery took place May 9 and the police had refused to make it public.

It is believed the thieves first plan was to invade her apartment while she was home, hold her up and bind her, as was done in the East River murder case and when Mrs. Howard Johnson was robbed in the Alhambra Hotel last Tuesday.

This belief was borne out by the fact that the night before the burglary Miss Sondersen received several distressing telephone calls, purporting to come from Kansas City. The next day another call came stating that her husband, Harry Meyers, from whom she is estranged, was seriously ill at No. 233 West Fifty-fifth street and for her to come to his bedside immediately.

Miss Sondersen complied, but when she arrived at the address she found it to be a left building.

REJECT EXTENSION OF MONTHLY TICKETS

The Department of Public Safety ruled against extending the time limit on monthly railroad commutation tickets from 30 to 35 days as "impractical and impossible."

This ruling followed a series of hearings at which commuters declared that it was impossible for a working man to use up the 60-trip commutation tickets with the 30-day time limit.

POLICE RAID MALT STORE IN ALLSTON

Special Officer John Willard of the Brighton station, armed with a search warrant, went to the malt store of John Lynch at No. 118 North Beacon street, Allston, and "kicked" in the door in the rear of the store to find ten men, standing about smoking cigarettes. Lynch was seated in a chair in front of the store. Glasses were found around the sink in the rear, the police say. Lynch will be in Brighton Court May 24, charged with keeping and exposing liquor for sale.

To Drape Broadway in Darkness by Liquor Raids

New York, May 14.—Heartened by triumphs over illicit liquor vendors last night and Wednesday, dry agents prepared today for further forays on the cabarets and speakeasies of the white light district.

These raids, starting with the padlocking of nine cabarets, and continuing with the arrest of the manager, head waiter and four waiters of the select Piccadilly rendezvous, are part of an offensive against the theatrical district. Ralph Orler, chief of the narcotic division, declared prohibition agents would raid and raid again until "Broadway was as dark as Fifth avenue."

BOY SCOUTS TO UNITE IN HUNT FOR LOST LAD

South Boston Youth Gone Four Days May Be on Way to Canada

Every Boy Scout in Greater Boston goes on duty today as a self-appointed detective to find some trace of 15-year-old Michael Burke, member of the Greater Boston Boy Scout Council, who disappeared from home last Monday.

The lads will adopt regular police methods and will carry on their search in the quiet work of running down tips and clues.

Young Burke lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burke, at 210 West Broadway, South Boston. They are convinced that their son has gone to Canada or possibly to the West.

SHOTS FLY IN CHASE OF GUN TOTER
After a chase of more than a half mile to Roxbury, Eugene Brown of New York, was arrested charged with having a revolver in his possession. He pleaded not guilty in Roxbury court and the case was continued until May 22. Brown, it is alleged, threatened a man with a gun at Tremont and Lenox streets.

Sued Police Chief

SARAH E. BRENNAN.

MISS BRENNAN NOW READY FOR THIRD SUIT

Prepares Further Litigation as Action in $10,000 for Arrest Nears Close

Bangor, Me., May 16.—Trial of the $10,000 damage suit brought by Miss Sarah E. Brennan against Fred H. Gerry, chief of police, and Dr. Royal G. Higgins, both of Bangor, is nearing a close.

The suit is the second in a series that Miss Brennan has instituted as the result of her arrest and detention in the Maine State Hospital for fifteen days.

While employed in the summer house of Murray Young, at Bangor, Miss Brennan became involved in some trouble which occurred among the help. That night the woman was taken from her room to the police station and locked up.

The next day she was fined $10, and when released from the city prison was taken in an automobile to Bangor and committed to the State Hospital. After being under observation fifteen days she was released.

Miss Brennan has already won a $300 verdict against Alfred Doyle and Charles Young, patrolmen, and Everett Lincoln, caretaker at the Young estate.

The present suit charges that the doctor and chief of police hurried Miss Brennan off to the State hospital, after they locked her up overnight in the Bangor jail.

The defendants allege that the woman was noisy and disorderly and only a minimum of force was used to subdue her.

A third suit against Dr. Higgins, claiming false commitment to the State hospital is pending.

And now... The ENCHANTED HILL. On a certain Spring day, two momentous things happened to Lee Purdy, owner of a big ranch in New Mexico called The Enchanted Hill. A total stranger took a long shot at him with a rifle.... And a bit later at a desert railroad stop, Lee met the loveliest girl he had ever seen.... So, with a thrilling mystery and a girl

FAR WEST SEES LITTLE HOPE IN LANDING THE MEET HERE

OFF YEAR FOR COAST ATHLETES

By COPLAND C. BIRG.

San Francisco, May 14.—Although three prominent colleges who represent the Far West in the annual college track meet in Harvard stadium in this morning, chances for another western victory are not bright.

Athletes who will represent the University of California, the three national track champions of the West, make up the packed aggregation which has ever expected the Blue and Gold in an eastern encounter.

Stanford, with Coach Hartranft, potential winner of the event, and put and was changed on and Hage and Campbell sprinters, as its stars, is expected to park the lead as far as the 100 yard race is concerned. The University of Southern California has Hauer, Anderson and West, capable athletes, but considered inferior to Stanford's star.

Hartranft, the only Californian regarded as a men's star at Harvard for a time, says that the Stanford athletes will have a chance to win the shot, discus and javelin, and he may capture a place in the 100 yard race.

There is a lot more to be said about the 100 yard race than about the 100 yard race. Coach Wagner of the University of California, who is in charge of the team, pointed out that the Stanford team is a year ahead of the other teams in the 100 yard race, and he is confident that they will win the race.

Test men who perform for the Berkeley stadium at Harvard. Of these Paul Jovan, head jumper, is the only one for whom a chance to win first place has been doing more than twenty-four feet consistently.

Nearby, the Blue and Gold captain, has an outside chance in the shot, discus and javelin. He earned points in these events last year in the Eastern championship. He intends to concentrate effort in the javelin event.

While what is said, being said, Jovan had time in the shot, discus and javelin to be in the game.

Hartranft, the Californian, did not even place in the 100 yard race. He is decidedly off form.

Robert Francis, who was expected to win the 100 yard race, was not in the race. He has been improving constantly.

CRIMSON AND PRINCETON IN TRACK MEET

A party of eighty Harvard representatives left the stadium this morning to invade the Princeton grounds for the first of the Big Three major and minor sports. Seven members of the party were tennis players, and the others comprised the track team who will engage with the Tiger athletes.

The track contest, of course, looms as the blarney track engagement on the college calendar. It has all the features of a cross-country event. Interest in statistics for spectators on the probable outcome of the dual meet was furnished by a compilation of the scores made by Harvard and Princeton against Tech yesterday.

Two weeks ago Princeton swept the Harvard team in a series of 10 to 25, 100 to 20, 200 to 10, 400 to 20, 800 to 10, 1600 to 10, 3200 to 10, 6400 to 10, 12800 to 10, 25600 to 10, 51200 to 10, 102400 to There Are Thinkers, and THINKERS

These Two Samples Are Far Apart

The really important work that men do is THINKING. Everything follows thought and GROWS OUT of thought. The difference between a man and a marmoset is a difference in THINKING. The difference between victory and defeat in any kind of effort is a difference in thinking. The difference between a grave in Potter's Field and the magnificent tomb under the gilded dome of the Invalides in which Napoleon lies is a difference in the power of thought.

Therefore, you may study with a moment's interest these two pictures, each labelled "The Thinker."

"The Thinker," by the Great Sculptor Rodin

Back of his flat against his mouth, covering it up. This shows that Rodin was THINKING as he worked. When a man wishes to concentrate all powers on thought, he puts his hand against his forehead or against his mouth to cover it. The primitive man would cover his MOUTH. And in a primitive man usually THINKS TO AVOID DANGER. And in a moment of danger, especially in danger accompanied by fear, the savage covers his mouth to make sure that no sound will come out of it to betray him. He covers his mouth and holds his breath.

That habit remained with us, and we have a tendency to cover our mouth when we are trying to think. Where she put her thumb or some other object.

There is thought in every inch of Rodin's statue, even in the feet and toes. If you put your fist against your mouth, as in the Rodin statue, proceed to think hard, you probably will notice your toes contracting inside of your shoes.

Why is that? THINK it out for yourself.

What do you find lacking in this young moving picture thinker? He HAS NOT covered up his mouth, and that is probably professional caution. It is a very beautiful model and it would be a pity to cover it up, even though it might scutate the thinking earnestness.

Also the young actor keeps his head straight up as he thinks. You will notice that Rodin's man BENDS his head forward. So does every ass who is REALLY thinking.

One thing that can be said against smoking, no matter what scientists may say of the effect of nicotine, is this: When you smoke your head goes BACKWARD, watching the smoke as you blow it up into the air. And when you have your head tilted back YOU CAN'T THINK.

On the other hand, smoking tobacco, which began with white people in the days of Queen Elizabeth, probably saves millions of men from something WORSE. And the something worse would have kept them from thinking ANYHOW.

The main difference between Rodin's "Thinker," his mouth leaning on his clenched fist, and the young picture actor in the thinking POSE, with his hand under his chin, is fundamentally this:

Rodin's man is actually THINKING. The other man, extremely able and successful in his profession, was thinking, if he thought at all when this picture was taken. "What a pity it would be to cover up any part of such a face as this!"

The first of these two pictures shows a statue made by Rodin, the powerful French sculptor. And that really IS a thinker. The man in the statue is REALLY THINKING. Everything in that statue shows thought. You will not waste a few minutes in THINKING about the difference between thought and the effort of the young moving picture actor, whose face you may recognize, giving an imitation of the Rodin statue.

First, you notice that Rodin's "Thinker" puts the

BERNARD SHAW, RICH LITTLE POOR MAN

A WIFE'S MEDITATIONS

By HELEN ROWLAND

SOLIMON was the kind of man whom almost any woman feels she might have loved.

As a poet, a statesman, and a philosopher, he was famous undimmed. It is in the World's Greatest that he will always be remembered.

Not because he had so many virtues, but because he understood them.

His heart was broken by "emotions," and as his wife, a woman may have been only "one of a crowd," but in everything the "personal equation" so dear to the sentimental heart of a woman.

Doubtless, he told each wife that he had "never loved like THIS before," and as there are a thousand different varieties of love, and no man ever experienced the same kind twice, it was the truth!

According to all records, Solomon was a "snappy dresser" and a man you could be proud of when you took him out to evening. He didn't like to be misjudged and he didn't like his evening clothes. He went into his CLOZET! And any married woman knows what a comfort THAT is!

Solomon, like all men, enjoyed giving "advice"—but he gave it all the time.

He KNEW WIFE.

Solomon never balked at proposals. He didn't have to be asked or hypnotized into a proposal. It didn't take six weeks and the best man to get him together and drag him to the altar. He went into marriage with his eyes wide open—and then never after kept them SHUT, which is the true secret of happiness.

Solomon talked like a poet. You didn't have to compose his tender sentences and make him repeat them after you. You didn't have to beg him to tell you WHY he loved you. You didn't have to drag him and then expect a compliment from him. He was a young girl who wanted marriage for her mother and the person who wanted him for his wife.

Think you. Will you have to hold the refrigerator for supper, but the other addresses you wished are being sent at once.

WORDS OF THE WISE MEN

Could we see when and where we are most alone, we would be more tender when we hid our friends goodbye.

Human experience, like the stern lights of a ship at sea, illumines only the path which we have passed over.

Language are to be learned only by reading and talking, and not by scraps of authors or by heart.

DR. FRANK CRANE ON GLOOM CARRIERS

By DR. FRANK CRANE

OUR authoritative medicine men declare that certain people are "typhoid germ carriers." That means that, while they do not have typhoid themselves, they carry the germs about their person and communicate them to other people, hence they are a danger to public health.

Alphonse Guille, a robust Belgian with rosy cheeks and apparent good health, conducted a haleshop in New York. The Board of Health had him up before the Municipal Court and the judge decided that he must keep away from the shop, that he could not handle breadstuffs, nor even sit at the cash register and make change for customers.

The reason for this was that, although it was some eighteen years ago that he had typhoid fever and was apparently cured, he was a typhoid germ carrier and should not be allowed to handle foodstuffs.

It came out in the trial that there are now some 119 persons being regularly inspected as carriers. One case cited was that of "Typhoid" Mary Fallon, who, several years ago, was adjudged a carrier. She had been employed as a domestic. She was ordered to choose some other line of work. Dr. Blau said that "Typhoid" Mary, under an assumed name, became a servant in the kitchen of a hospital. After an epidemic of typhoid there the woman was identified as a carrier and, having broken the rule laid down by the Sanitary Code, she was given a sentence of "enforced supervision" for several years.

This all seems fair enough. The public health must be preserved, but, after all, we are not mere animals with bodies; we carry germs that would destroy our bodies, why cannot someone look out for those souls who carry germs that bring disease to our spirits?

The health of the spirit of man may fairly be gauged by his courage, his cheer and his altruistic impulses.

The spiritual diseases known as fear, cynicism, pessimism, despair and other varieties of gloom, spoil gifts as many lives as typhoid fever, cancer and malaria. Out of a dozen new books that come to my desk there is an average of about four or five that are gloom books. If their net effect is to do anything but to make one sick I do not know what it is.

I am opposed to censorship, as a general principle, that is, I am opposed to anyone being censor but me.

And I personally cannot see how I can be a censor. I do not ask that the books be proscribed "nice," nor even truthful. Lies, if you extend the definition of the word to include all fiction, are sometimes entertaining and even stimulating, and some stories that are rough, worldly and even naughty, are not without their uses.

But a book written plainly under the influence of indolence, or an article in a newspaper or magazine that is manifestly an exhortation of one of the irritated spirits of the inferior complex, or any sort of writing that aims to attract attention by its flavor of slander, I cannot stomach.

Myself, and all my fellow human beings, are engaged in the business of living and all around us are the enemies of life, things that depress and alarm and discourage. And I do not like to do business with the enemy.

GARRETT P. SERVISS ON THE ATMOSPHERE

By Garrett P. Serviss
Famous Astronomer and Writer on Scientific Topics of Popular Interest.

"Is there a certain height above the earth where there is absolutely no air, and so what is the distance?"—H.

YOUR question is one that has never had a perfectly definite and conclusive answer, and perhaps it never will have such an answer.

There is a so-called mathematical limit to the height of the atmosphere depending upon the ratio of the force of gravity to the centrifugal force arising from the earth's rotation. It is assumed that, there being no resistance medium in open space, the entire atmosphere, whatever its height, rotates at the same angular rate as the solid globe. That being so, the centrifugal force action upon the air must increase with the height above the earth's surface.

If the force of gravity remained unaltered with distance, the atmosphere at a height above the earth's centre would be in equilibrium as against the earth's radius. At about 6,370 miles from the centre, the atmosphere would be freed from the earth's attraction. This is the outside fact that, at the earth's surface, an increase of 1,000 miles from the centre of rotation would produce a centrifugal force equal to gravity.

But the force, or acceleration, of gravity diminishes with distance from the earth's surface, and when this diminution is taken into account, the calculation of the simultaneous increase of limit of the atmosphere would be 21,000 miles from the centre of the earth.

Thus we do not know that the earth's atmosphere extends to any such height, while, on the other hand, we do know that one-half of its entire weight lies below the level of 10,000 miles, and seven-eighths below the level of ten miles.

A thing of beauty is a joy forever; its loveliness increases; it will bring a happy glow back to your eyes, and you will find it worth the waiting.

Every man carries in his own hand a box of water. It will be found in all the gardens of the world.

Without hope it is impossible to find the unknown.

Deaf that the speaker may be aware of these—Shakespeare.

In character, in manner, in style.
